Dear Sponsor

Our Club is community based and affiliated to the Cape District Football Association. We have been a member of SAFA-Cape Town for over 66 years. Today, the Club consists of 300 members from diverse backgrounds and cultures. Approximately 90% of our members are from previously disadvantaged and gang dominated communities such as Hanover Park, Steenberg, Langa and Lotus River. The Club would like to assist our junior members with mathematics and literacy tutoring. Our vision is to add to these tutoring programs by implementing life skills programs which will empower our youth to make good and informed choices when dealing with peer pressure, conflict resolution and substance abuse. We have By providing recreation in a structured and holistic environment, we strive to teach our members that discipline, teamwork and respect reaps rewards. This so that they do not succumb to the negative influences associated with their surrounding circumstances.

In 2023 we were the reciprants of a sponsorship award from the Allan Grey Philanthropy Foundation and we met and exceeded all performance milestones and reporting obligations as reciprants of this award. We recognize that we will not be able to continue the momentum of our Club initiatives without goodwill interventions of sponsors and our Executive Committee remain committed to working with such sponsorships so that the initiatives may be realized.
